80,000 MEN TO CHINA

VAN TWILLER HOTEL TRAGEDY.

MAN AND GIRL KILLED
THEMSELVES FOR LOVE.

Marie Duran, of Windsor Locks, Conn., and Charles Koch, of Hartford, Sent Bullets Through Their Right Temples.

"It Is Not Death We Fear, It Is Separation. We Have Made the Most of Our Short Acquaintance," They Wrote.

Cold in death, the bodies of a woman and a man were found on a bed in room 19, of the Hotel Van Twiller, at Twenty-fifth street and Lexington avenue, at 11 o'clock this morning.

It was evidently a love tragedy. Clutched tightly in the right hand of the man was a .32-calibre revolver. His hand lay across his breast.

They were Marie Duran, a beautiful twenty-two-year-old girl, of Windsor Locks, Conn., and her lover, Charles Koch, of Hartford, Conn.

To the hotel people they were known as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duran, of California.

The coroner believes that the man first shot the woman and then killed himself.

They had been at the hotel frequently during the past year.

Last Friday they arrived in the city. They kept to themselves and remained a good part of the time in their room, having their meals sent up to them.

At 7 o'clock last night they returned from an outing. A light supper was ordered and they ate it and drank a few bottles of beer.

TRAGEDY DISCOVERED.

This morning they were not seen about the hotel, and not having rang for breakfast, a clerk sent to their room to see if anything was the matter.

The door was locked, and no response came to several knocks. A glass key was used, and the tragedy was discovered.

The blood trails showed that neither had moved after firing the fatal shots.

The woman was attired in a black gown of fashionable make. The man (Continued on Fourth Page.)

OFF FOR THE CONVENTION.

CROKER TO CONFER
STARTS WITH BRYAN

Richard Croker begins his journey to Kansas City at 1:35 o'clock this afternoon. He goes two days in advance of the other Tammany delegates for reasons unexplained.

"Whatever the convention does will suit Tammany," is his peaceful declaration.

A special car has been provided to convey the big Tammany Boss and his party to the Convention City. It will be attached to the regular Pennsylvania express, leaving Jersey City at 5:35 P. M.

The train is due at Kansas City at 7 o'clock Sunday morning.

There has been some talk of Croker meeting Bryan before the Convention, and although he says this has not been definitely decided upon, it is probable that the two men will come together

ALL MINISTERS HELD IN PEKING.

LONDON, June 29.—6 P. M.—The British Consul at Chefoo wires the Foreign Office to-day that a message from Peking says the foreign legations are still at Peking.

In the House of Commons the Government stated to-day that all telegrams pointed to the legations being still at Peking.

FIRST NEWS OF M'CALLA'S WORK.

The following despatch from The World's Special War Correspondent at Chefoo, Frederick Palmer, gives the first authentic news of Admiral Seymour's force and the Foreign Envoys. It is the first detailed report received by any newspaper from a correspondent on the spot. Mr. Palmer was ordered from Manila to China on the outbreak of trouble.

This despatch was at once telegraphed to the Secretary of State at Washington.

ON BOARD THE U. S. FLAGSHIP NEWARK.
AT CHEFOO, NORTHERN CHINA, June 29.

The foreign envoys are not with Admiral Seymour's broken force at Tientsin. The report that they were with the Admiral was started by the Russians, and was absolutely unfounded.

The main hope for the safety of the Legations is in the discretion or fear of reprisals of the Chinese Government. They will, it is
